EXPERIMENTS IN BUDDHIST-CHRISTIAN ENCOUNTER

From Buddha-Nature
to the Divine Nature

By

Peter Feldmeier
Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Chapter 1 The Importance of the Religious Other 1
   From Modernity to Postmodernity 1
   Interpretation Theory and Comparative Theology 7
   The Aim of This Book 10

Chapter 2 The Buddha and His Teaching 13
   The Buddha (c. 563–483 BCE) and His Biographies 13
   Prehistory of the Buddha 15
   The Birth and Early Life of the Bodhisattva 16
   Going Forth to Enlightenment 19
   The Buddha’s Dharma 22
   The End of the Buddha’s Life and Buddha Worship 32
   Final Word 38

Chapter 3 The Path of Purification and the Dark Night: 39
   Buddhistghosa and John of the Cross 39
   Buddhaghosa (Fifth Century CE) 39
   Buddhaghosa’s Path to Nirvana 42
   Understanding or Insight 46
   John of the Cross (1542–1591) 47
   St. John’s Path to Union with God 49
   Buddhaghosa and John of the Cross Compared 55
   Buddhist Meditations for Christians 65

Chapter 4 Nagarjuna and the Christian Via Negativa 69
   From Mahasanghika to Nagarjuna 69
   Nagarjuna (c. 150–250 CE) and the Stanzas on the Middle Path 72
   The Christian Via Negativa 78
   Comparing the Messages 85
Contents

Chapter 5 Emptiness, Buddha-Nature, Bodhisattvas, and Meister Eckhart 89

From Arhat to Bodhisattva 89
Suchness, Buddha-Fields, and Buddha-Nature 93
Becoming a Bodhisattva 96
Bodhisattvas and Buddhas 100
Meister Eckhart 101
Mahayana and Eckhart in Dialogue 111
Is Mahayana Theistic? 114

Chapter 6 The Way of the Bodhisattva and the Spiritual Exercises 117

Shantideva (Eighth Century) and the Bodhicaryavatara 117
Ignatius of Loyola and the Spiritual Exercises 128
The Spiritual Exercises as a Path 130
Shantideva and Ignatius in Dialogue 135

Chapter 7 Zen Mind/Christian Mind 139

Introducing Zen 139
Satori 145
The Pressure Cooker of Koans 147
What Is Zen Enlightenment? 150
A Christian Reflection 154

Chapter 8 Zen Oxherding Pictures and the Stages of Faith 165

The Oxherding Pictures: A Zen and Christian Commentary 168
Christian Progress through Spiritual Stages 186
Comparing Paths 191
Can a Christian Be a Roshi? 192

Chapter 9 The Heart of Buddhist Experience, Pure Land, and Christian Theology 195

Lives of Faith and Grace: How Far apart Are We? 195
Pure Land Buddhism 199
Recitation of the Holy Name: Buddhist and Christian 203
Christian Love and Buddhist Compassion 207

Chapter 10 A Christian Commentary on the Heart Sutra 211

The Heart Sutra 211
Some Introductory Comments 213
Contents

- Making Sense of the Heart Sutra 215
- The Concluding Mantra 217
- A Christian Commentary 219
- A Christian Heart Sutra 230

Bibliography 233

Index 247