

Contents

Acknowledgments xi

CHAPTER ONE

Honoring Ecowomanist Experience 1

 Earth Story:

 An Ecowomanist Ecoautobiography 2

 A Family Ecojourney 7

 Overview of This Book 9

CHAPTER TWO

Ecowomanism 101: Method and Approaches 13

 Ecowomanism: Theory and Praxis 14

 Critical Reflection on Experience and Womanist
 Intersectional Analysis:

 Deconstructive and Constructive 16

Critical Deconstructive Analysis 17

Constructive Approaches 20

 Method, Roots, and Womanist Lineage 21

 The Seven-Step Ecowomanist Method 23

Step One: Honoring Experience and Mining Ecomemory 27

Step Two: Critical Reflection on Experience and Ecomemory 38

Step Three: Womanist Intersectional Analysis 42

Step Four: Critically Examining African and African American History and Tradition 49

Step Five: Engaging Transformation 54

Step Six: Sharing Dialogue 57

Step Seven: Take Action for Earth Justice:
Teaching Ecowomanism 58
Conclusion. 58

CHAPTER THREE

Critical Exploration of African and
African American History and Tradition 61
African American Environmental History 65
African and African American
 Environmental Religious Ethics 69
Ecowomanism: A Review. 72
Making Connections:
 African Religion, Ecology, and the Diaspora 73
 “I Can’t Breathe” 76

CHAPTER FOUR

Engaging Transformation:
 Ecowomanist Spirituality 79
 Alice Walker. 81
 The Definition of Womanist:
 Center of Ecowomanist Thought 86
 Rose Mary Amenga-Etego 96
 The Environment as Sacred:
 The Earth as Sacred. 97
 Gender and Interconnectedness of Ecosystem 99
 African Spirituality 101
 Spiritual Activism. 102
 Mercy Oduyoye 102
 Ecowomanist Praxis: Ecospirituality, Self-Care, and Earth Healing Practices 105
 African American Environmental History and Healing Ecomemory 105

CHAPTER FIVE

Ecowomanist Interreligious Dialogue 111
 Womanist Roots 114

Womanism Is Postcolonial	115
Home: Womanist Epistemology and Interfaith Womanist Dialogue	117
The Womanist Dancing Mind, Method, and Interfaith Womanist Dialogue	119
Eyes toward Justice: The Value of Interdisciplinary Approaches and Global Links in Womanist Interfaith Dialogue	123
Interfaith, Interreligious, and Intrareligious Womanism.	125
Interfaith Womanist Dialogue	126
Interreligious Womanist Dialogue	128
Intrareligious Womanist Dialogue	130
 CHAPTER SIX
Taking Action for Earth Justice:
Teaching Ecowomanism.	133
Pedagogical Exercise	138
Ritual Example	139
Litany	140
 CHAPTER SEVEN
Ecowomanism and Ecological Reparations	141
Ecowomanism	141
Ecowomanism and Ecological Reparations	143
Ecological Reparations.	144
Reimagining Theology: Ecowomanist Analysis and the Challenge of Reshaping Dualistic Theological Frames	145
Challenges: Breaking the Addiction to Dualisms in Western Thought	146
Honoring Complexity	148
Conclusion: Liberating Earth and Ecowomanism	151
Index	157