

CONTENTS

---

Acknowledgments	xiii
Foreword by Walter Brueggemann	xv
Introduction	1
1. Liberation Theology Worldwide	9
History and Development	9
How Does Liberation Theology Relate to Traditional Theology?	12
2. Who Are the Palestinian Christians?	15
The First Factor: The Theological Controversies	17
The Second Factor: The Coming of Islam	19
The Third Factor: The Coming of the Crusades	19
The Fourth Factor: The Coming of the Protestants	20
The Fifth Factor: The Coming of the Zionists and the State of Israel	21
3. The Threefold Nakba	25
The Human Nakba	26
The Identity Nakba	27
The Faith Nakba	28

4. Other Historical Events that Led to the Emergence of Palestinian Liberation Theology	31
The Holocaust	32
The War of 1967 and the Rise of Religious Zionism	34
The First Intifada	36
5. Reclaiming the Humanity of Jesus	41
Jesus in Nazareth (Luke 4:18–19)	42
The Unjust Judge (Luke 18:1–8)	43
Jesus Christ as Our Hermeneutic	44
6. Development of Religious Thought in the Old Testament	47
God of Some or God of All	47
Some Difficult Old Testament Texts	49
A Demand for Ethnic Cleansing	49
A Demand for Ethnic Annihilation	50
A Vengeful God	51
The Ultimate Enemy: Amalek	52
Some Examples	56
Bigotry and Racism	58
Land for Some or Land for All	60
A Theology that Transcends Leviticus	62
Ezekiel Critiques Other Theologies of His Day	67
How Does This Bear on the Palestinian Question?	68
Jerusalem for Some or Jerusalem for All	68
God of War or God of Peace	71
Psalm 24	73
Isaiah 42:13	73
Psalm 68:21, 30	74

Isaiah 2:2–5 (A Vision of Peace and Nonviolence)	74
Micah 4:4–5 (A Vision of Peace and Interfaith)		75
The Theology of Jonah	76
Conclusion: Exclusive and Inclusive Theologies, Then and Now	81
7. Christ Is the Key		83
Expanding and Deepening the Understanding of God and Neighbor	83
Jesus Reinterprets the Tradition	90
The Gospel of Matthew	90
The Gospel of Mark	91
The Gospel of Luke	92
Paul Reinterprets the Tradition	93
Galatians 3:6–9	94
Galatians 3:15–18, 22	94
Galatians 3:23–24, 26, 28–29; 4:6–7	94
Romans 4:13–17	95
John Reinterprets the Tradition	99
Creation Is Reinterpreted in the Light of Christ	99
Election Is Reinterpreted in the Light of Christ	99
The Land Is Reinterpreted and Re-Directed in the Light of Christ	101
Ritual Purity Is Revamped in the Light of Christ	103
The Temple Is Made Redundant and a Different Temple Is Built	103
God’s Inclusive Love Is Extended to the Whole World through Christ	104

8. Justice at the Center	105
New Threats and Dangers in Israel	106
New Israeli Myths	108
Threats in Palestine	110
Resolving the Conflict	111
Just Solutions?	111
Jerusalem	115
A Plea for a Strategy of Nonviolence	117
Seven Dimensions of Justice	119
The Peace Circle	121
9. The Emergence of Sabeel and Its Friends	123
Background	123
Archbishop Joseph Raya	124
Archbishop Elias Chacour	125
Indigenization of Church Leaderships	126
Palestinian Liberation Theology	126
Kairos Palestine	127
The Sabeel Center and Its Friends	129
Friends of Sabeel (IFOS and FOS)	131
Friends of Sabeel North America (FOSNA)	132
Friends of Sabeel UK	133
Canadian Friends of Sabeel (CFOS)	134
Friends of Sabeel in Scandinavia	134
Friends of Sabeel Norway (FoSN)	135
Friends of Sabeel Australia (FOS-AU)	135
Friends of Sabeel Ireland	136
Friends of Sabeel The Netherlands	136
Friends of Sabeel Germany	137
Friends of Sabeel France	137

10. The Heart of Faith and Action in the Twenty-first Century	139
What Is Palestinian Liberation Theology?	139
The Word of God	141
Three Essential Pillars for Resolving the Palestine/Israel Conflict	142
The Heart of Religious Faith	143
Who Is My Neighbor?	143
Who Is Our God?	143
The Hermeneutical Key	147
No Substitute for Justice	147
Sumood and Thabaat	149
We Are Servants of God's Kingdom	150
 Resources	 153
Purpose Statement of Sabeel	153
Sabeel Prayer	153
Sabeel International Conferences and Related Publications	154
Sabeel Publications	155
Cornerstone	156
Contemporary Way of the Cross	156
The Wave of Prayer	156
 Bibliography	 157
Index	163