

Contents

Preface to the American Society of Missiology Series	xi
Acknowledgments	xii
Acronyms	xiii
Foreword
Tite Tiénou	xv
Contributors	xvii
1. The Genesis and Growth of the Africa Christian Leadership Study Robert J. Priest	1
2. Characteristics of Influential African Christian Leaders David K. Ngaruiya	29
3. Formation of African Christian Leaders: Patterns from the ALS Data Wanjiru M. Gitau	49
4. Connected—The Role of Social Capital for Leaders with Impact Steven D. H. Rasmussen	65
5. Leadership Responses during Armed Conflict Elisabet le Roux and Yolande Sandoua	85
6. Word and Deed—Patterns of Influential African Christian Organizations Nupanga Weanzana	103

7. African Christian Organizations and Socioeconomic Development Michael Bowen	115
8. African Women’s Leadership—Realities and Opportunities Truphosa Kwaka-Sumba and Elisabet le Roux	135
9. Empowering Leadership—A New Dawn in African Christian Leadership H. Jurgens Hendriks	155
10. Reading and Leading—Challenges for African Christian Leaders Robert J. Priest, Kirimi Barine, and Alberto Lucamba Salombongo	173
11. Developing Transformational Leaders—Curricula Implications from the Africa Leadership Study John Jusu	199
12. Engaging Africa—The Tyndale House Foundation’s Story Mary Kleine Yehling	215
Conclusion: Lessons Learned through the Africa Leadership Study	231
Appendix A: ALS Purpose Statements	239
Appendix B: ALS Survey Results	241
Appendix C: Africa Leadership Study: A Seedbed Resource: Website and Forum	279
Index	283
The American Society of Missiology Series	297