

Contents

Introduction: On Discovering Reconciliation ix

Part I: Reconciling All Things

- 1 The Gift of, and the Invitation into, Another World 3
- 2 Reconciling Justice: Transitional Justice, Radical Forgiveness, and the Reinvention of Nation-State Politics in Africa 16
- 3 The End of Words: Reconciliation in the Wake of Genocide in Rwanda 34
- 4 Reconciling Africae Munus: The Church in Africa in Service to Reconciliation, Justice, and Peace 45

Part II: For the Life of the World: The Church as Sacrament of God's Reconciliation in the World

- 5 Parables of a "New We": Thinking Theologically about Christian Identity 65
- 6 On Learning to Betray One's People: The Gospel and a Culture of Peace in Africa 83
- 7 "Threatened with Resurrection": The Terrible Gift of Martyrs 104

Part III: Improvising New Creation:
On Being Ambassadors of Reconciliation in a Divided World

8	Archbishop John Baptist Odama and the Politics of Baptism in Northern Uganda	121
9	Archbishop Emmanuel Kataliko and the “Excess of Love” in Bukavu	137
10	A Blood Thicker Than the Blood of Tribalism: Maggy Barankitse’s Maison Shalom	159
11	Field Hospital: The Compassion of Jo and Lyn Lusi in Eastern Congo	167
	Index	183