

Contents

| | |
|--|------------|
| Acknowledgments | vii |
| Prologue: In the Grip of a Narrative | ix |
| 1. Reading the Gospels | 1 |
| New Perspectives | 2 |
| Postcolonialism | 5 |
| Conflict in The Gospels | 13 |
| The Following Chapters | 27 |
| 2. Mark | 31 |
| Mark's Project: The Resistance Campaign | 31 |
| Mark's Story: The People's Messiah | 46 |
| Conflict Resolution in Mark | 66 |
| Resistance as Nonviolent Action | 73 |
| 3. Matthew | 77 |
| Matthew's Project: The Return of the Kingship | 78 |
| Matthew's Story: Reimagining the Messiah | 88 |
| Conflict Resolution in Matthew | 103 |
| Resistance as Non-retaliation | 113 |
| 4. Luke-Acts | 119 |
| Luke's Project: A Path to the Gentiles | 119 |
| Luke's Story: Opening a Route to the God-fearers | 135 |
| Conflict Resolution in Luke-Acts | 168 |
| Resistance as Lifestyle | 177 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| 5. John | 181 |
| John's Project: The Story of the Word | 183 |
| John's Story: Jesus of Nazareth | 193 |
| Conflict Resolution in John | 208 |
| Resistance as Love | 221 |
| | |
| 6. Narrative Conflict in the Gospels | 223 |
| Counter-Narratives and the Accused Woman | 223 |
| In the End . . . | 227 |
| | |
| Index | 229 |