

Contents

---

Abbreviations	ix
Preface and Acknowledgments for Second Edition	xi
1. How the Concept of Mission Has Changed:
An Introduction	1
From Ransoming Pagan Babies to Mission on Every Continent and in Every Parish	1
New Understanding of Mission	2
Mission and Table Fellowship	6
Additional Considerations and Challenges	9
Aim and Structure of This Book	10
Questions for Reflection	12
Suggestions for Further Reading	12
2. Starting with the Big Picture: God's Mission, the Reign of God, and Christ the Savior	13
God's Mission and the Spirit	14
Jesus and the Reign of God	15
The Mission of Jesus and Table Fellowship	16
Jesus Christ, the Savior	18
Call to Discipleship	19
Jesus Encounters the Samaritan Woman at the Well	21
Mission as Seeds and Weeds	23
Sketching the Big Picture	24
Questions for Reflection	26
Suggestions for Further Reading	26
3. The Spirit Leads the Disciples in New Directions:
The Biblical Portrait of a Church Missionary by Nature	27
Before Pentecost (Acts 1): Disappointment and Expectation	28

Pentecost (Acts 2—5): Receiving Power to Bear Witness	29
Stephen and the Hellenists (Acts 6—7): Jewish Disciples Pushed beyond Their Comfort Zone	30
Samaria and the Ethiopian Eunuch (Acts 8): To the Ends of the Earth?	31
Cornelius and His Household (Acts 10:1—11:18): Peter and the Gentile Mission	32
Antioch (Acts 11:19–29): Mission Matures	35
Universal Mission (Acts 12—28): Missional and Church Self-Consciousness Spreads	36
A Tiny Church with a Universal Mission	39
Questions for Reflection	40
Suggestions for Further Reading	40
4. Mission from the Early Church to the Fall of Constantinople (100–1453): House Churches, Monks, Mendicants, and Beguines	42
Mission in the Early Church (100–301): Individual Christians in a Variety of Situations	43
Mission and the Monastic Movement (313–907): From Constantine to the Fall of the T'ang Dynasty	50
Mission and the Mendicant Movement (1000–1453): Preachers, Third Orders, and Beguines	56
Questions for Reflection	62
Suggestions for Further Reading	62
5. Mission from Columbus to the Fall of the Berlin Wall (1492–1989): Prophets, Jesuits, Missionary Societies, and New Approaches	63
Mission in the Age of Discovery (1492–1773): Conquistadors, Prophets, and Jesuits	64
Mission in the Age of Progress (1792–1914): Civilizers, Evangelizers, and Volunteer Societies	71
Mission in the Twentieth Century (1919–1989): The Emergence of World Christianity	76
Icons of the Transformation of Mission	78
Emergence of World Christianity: Christianity as a World Religion	80
Questions for Reflection	82
Suggestions for Further Reading	82

6. Church Documents as Signposts for Mission Today:
The Why, Who, and Where of Mission	84
Mission before Vatican II: Saving Souls and Establishing the Church	85
Mission as Participation in the Mission of the Triune God	87
Implications of the Three Missional Principles of Vatican II	89
Mission as Liberating Service of the Reign of God	90
Mission as Proclamation of Jesus Christ as Universal Savior	94
Evangelii gaudium and Pope Francis	96
The Why, the Who, and the Where of Mission	98
The Wedding Banquet as a Parable of Mission	105
Questions for Reflection	107
Suggestions for Further Reading	107
7. A Single but Complex Reality: The What of Mission	109
Witness and Proclamation	110
Liturgy, Prayer, and Contemplation	112
Pursuit of Justice, Peace, and the Integrity of Creation	114
Interreligious and Secular Dialogue	116
Inculturation	118
Reconciliation	120
Integrating the Single but Complex Reality of Mission	122
Questions for Reflection	123
Suggestions for Further Reading	123
8. The Mission-Oriented Parish and Diocese:
The Spirituality and Practice—the How— of Missionary Discipleship	125
The Spirituality of Mission	126
Prophetic Dialogue: Discerning the Already and the Not Yet	128
Practice of Mission	129
Once Again, Mission as a Single but Complex Reality	133
Table Fellowship as the Goal of Mission in Its Fullness	136
Summing Up: What Is the Mission of the Church?	137
Questions for Reflection	138
Suggestions for Further Reading	138

Appendix 1
A Sample Parish Assessment Tool	140
Appendix 2
Partnership Annual Check-In	144
Appendix 3
Resources and Contact Information	148
A. Resources for Short-Term Mission, Parish Twinning, and Mission Formation	148
B. Select Diocesan or Regional Mission Office Websites	149
C. General Contact Information	150
Bibliography	152
A. Official Catholic Church Documents Related to Mission after 1960	152
B. Basic Resources on Mission and Mission Education	154
Index	161