

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

Antonio Autiero and Laurenti Magesa

Part I: Foundational Aspects

Theological Ethics and the People of God: Profile, Tensions, and Perspectives 7

Elio Gasda

Pending Tasks of Moral Theology in the Framework of an Ecclesiology of Communion 18

Maria Isabel Gil Espinosa

“The Theology of the End of the World”: Rethinking Theological Ethics from the Existential Peripheries 29

Pablo A. Blanco

“All Who Saw It Began to Grumble”: Reflections on Accompaniment and Conscience Transformation 42

Daniel J. Fleming

Pneumatology, Diversity, and the Role of Moral Theology Today 56

Laurie Johnston

Catholic Social Teaching in a Church That Is Both Local and Universal 66

Kenneth R. Himes

Context and Moral Teaching: The Crucial Importance of the Magisterium of the Local Church 79

Vimal Tirimanna

On the Ecclesial Vocation of the Moral Theologian: Some Significant Shifts of Emphasis 94

Antonio Autiero

Part II: Contexts and Perspectives

The Role of the Moral Theologian in the Vietnamese Church 109

Nhu Y-Lan Tran

Catholic Ethics and the Construction of Social Reality in Contemporary Africa Laurenti Magesa	117
The Church as a Family of God: The Role of Small Christian Communities in Evangelization in the Nigerian Context Anthonia Bolanle Ojo	127
Toward a Prophetic and Hope-Bearing Ethic for Cuba Aldo Marcelo Cáceres	138
Big Challenges Require Major Transformations: Suggestions from Bolivia Claudia Montes de Oca Ayala	148
Theologians and Public Ethical Discourse in Slovenia Roman Globokar	161
Splendors and Shadows of the Ecclesial Character of Moral Theology by Polish Moral Theologians Konrad Glombik	173
Giving the Floor to the Poor: New Challenges for Catholic Ethicists in France Grégoire Catta	185

Part III: Fields of Conflicts

Reconsidering Selection of Life in the Cultural Context of Japan: Challenge of the Japanese Catholic Church Haruko K. Okano	199
Justice as Healing: Reflections on the Understanding of Justice, Based on an Indian Experience of Criminal Justice Delivery in a Rural Non-Christian Community George Kodithottam	212
Transforming Electoral Violence in Africa Anne Celestine Achieng Oyier-Ondigo	222
The Moral Question of Terrorism in Divided Societies: Perspectives from Africa Elias Omondi Opongo	235
Counting the Uncounted: A Theo-Ethical Imperative for the Theological Ethicist in Raising a Challenge to Widespread and Unrecognized Practices of Exclusion Mary Jo Iozzio	247

Moral Deafness and Social Sin: Feminist Theologians and the Bishops from a US Perspective Barbara Hilkert Andolsen	259
Digital Localities, the Church, and Ethics Jana Marguerite Bennett	270
Shepherding the Lost (and Found) Sheep in a Secularized Context: Struggles, Challenges, and Opportunities for Working with(in) Civil Society's Catholic Organizations Ellen Van Stichel	282
Epilogue: The Emerging Vocation of a Moral Theologian: Commonalities across Contexts Lindsay Marcellus	293
Contributors	313
Index	319