THEOLOGY IN GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE SERIES

Peter C. Phan, General Editor

Ignacio Ellacuría Professor of Catholic Social Thought, Georgetown University

The Theology in Global Perspectives series responds to the challenge to re-examine the foundational and doctrinal themes of Christianity in light of the new global reality. While traditional Catholic theology has assumed an essentially European or Western point of view, Theology in Global Perspective takes into account insights and experience of churches in Africa, Asia, Latin American, Oceania, as well as from Europe and North America. Noting the pervasiveness of changes brought about by science and technology, and growing concerns about the sustainability of Earth, it seeks to embody insights from studies in these areas as well.
