

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xii

PART I

1. Black Women: Race, Gender, and Class	3
Dynamics of Gender: “Be a Lady”	5
Dynamics of Race: “But You Are Black”	12
Questions of Class	15
Race with Gender with Class: Connecting the Dots	19
Becoming Womanists	22
Discussion Questions	24
2. Constructing Theologies	25
Contours of Theology	26
Dynamics of Theology	30
Defining Theology	35
Defining Liberation Theologies	38
Culture and Theology	42
Discussion Questions	45
3. Womanist Theology	46
“Ordinary” Theologies	46
Communal Dimensions	49

Constructing Womanist Theology	55
Defining Womanist Theology	60
Discussion Questions	64
PART II
4. Womanist Constructions	67
Signal Texts	68
Distinctive Approaches	74
Developing Methods of Womanist Work	77
Continued Development of Womanist Theology	81
Discussion Questions	85
5. Dialogue and Womanist Theology	86
Womanist or Black Feminist? Naming Ourselves	87
Dialogue between Womanists and White Feminists	91
Afrocentricity and Womanist Theology	93
Black Theology and Womanist Theology	96
Black Religious Traditions	98
Dialogue with Students: Teaching Womanist Theology	101
Womanist Thought in the Diaspora: Global Dialogue	102
Discussion Questions	104
6. Womanist Theology, Constructed	105
Suffering and Salvation	106
Reconsidering Christology	113
A Word about Womanist Biblical Scholarship	117
Questions of God	118
Personhood	121
Discussion Questions	123

7. New Challenges, Lingering Questions	124
Pastoral Theology	124
Ecumenical Dialogue	129
Connections with Traditional African Religions	132
Theology of Sexuality	138
Ethnography and Art: Expanding Womanist Methods	140
Conclusion	143
Discussion Questions	144
Notes	145
Bibliography	161
Index	173