

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments		ix
Introduction		1
Who Is the Black Christ?	6
Is the Black Christ Enough?	7
Chapter 1
The Roots of the Black Christ		9
Slaveholding Christianity and the White Christ	10
Slave Christianity and the Black Christ	20
Black Nationalists and the Color of Christ	30
Early Black Literature and the Black Christ	32
Chapter 2
The Black Struggle and the Black Christ		35
Martin Luther King, Jr., and the Black Christ	37
Malcolm X and the Color of Christ	45
Chapter 3
The Theological Development of the Black Christ		53
The Relationship between Blackness and Christ	55
The Significance of Liberation and Reconciliation	64
Violence or Nonviolence?	72
Chapter 4
A Critical Assessment of the Black Christ		78
An Assessment of Each Claim	79
Is the Black Christ Adequate?	84
The Emergence of Womanist Theology	92

Chapter 5

A Womanist Approach to the Black Christ	97
Laying a Womanist Foundation	97
Something More about the Blackness of Christ	106
The Womanist Black Christ Challenges Womanists and the Church	113
The Black Christ from a Womanist Eye	116
Notes	118
Index	132