

Contents

Preface	xi
Chapter 1
The Basic Question: How to Be Christians in a World of Destitution	1
Com-passion, "Suffering with"      2
Meeting the Poor Christ in the Poor      3
The First Step: Liberating Action, Liber-a(c)tion      4
The Second Step: Faith Reflects on Liberating Practice      6
Notes      9
Chapter 2
The Three Levels of Liberation Theology: Professional, Pastoral, Popular	11
From Head to Foot: A Continuum of Reflection      11
How Liberation Theology Works in Practice      19
Chapter 3
How Liberation Theology Is Done	22
The Preliminary Stage: Living Commitment      22
Socio-analytical Mediation      24
Hermeneutical Mediation      32
Practical Mediation      39
Chapter 4
Key Themes of Liberation Theology	43
Solidarity with the Poor: Worshipping God and Communing with Christ      43
Theological Reasons for the Option of the Poor      44
In the Final Analysis, Who Are the Poor?      46
Some Key Themes of Liberation Theology      49
Other Challenges to Liberation Theology      63
Temptations Facing Liberation Theology      64
Chapter 5
A Concise History of Liberation Theology	66
Antecedents      66
Formulation      70
Support and Opposition      73
The Magisterium of the Church      75

Chapter 6
Liberation Theology Worldwide		78
A Dynamic and Inspiring Theology	78
A Theology with an Impact	83
A Public and Prophetic Theology	85
The Historical Significance of Liberation Theology		88
Chapter 7
From out of the Oppressed: A New Humanity		90
Liberation: The Evocative Power of a Word	90
The Dream of a Truly Free Society	93
Select Bibliography		97