

Contents

Introduction	ix
Brian P. Flanagan and Johann M. Vento

Part I

Liturgy and Power, Human and Divine

Sacramental Liturgy as Negotiation of Power, Human and Divine	3
Bruce T. Morrill, SJ

The Power of Memory and Witnessing: A Trauma-Informed Analysis of Anamnesis in the Roman Catholic Mass	22
Annie Selak

“All Creation Sings”: The Ecological Crisis, Laudato Si’ , and an Orthodoxy of Praise	34
Paul J. Schutz

Liturgy as Power-Sharing: Synergy for Solidarity	46
Marcus Mescher

Part II

Liturgy and the World: Weakness and Power

Power and Weakness: Liturgy, Justice, and the World	65
Susan A. Ross

The Power of Liturgical Lament to Evoke Ecological Virtues	85
Anne M. Clifford

Recovering Liturgy: African American Catholic Liturgical Revivalism Krista Stevens	97
Traditional Devotion, Radical Witness: Insights from Fieldwork in Conflict North Uganda Todd Whitmore	108
Women's Silent Suffering: Constructive Theological and Liturgical Responses Cynthia L. Cameron and Susan Bigelow Reynolds Response by Susan A. Ross	120
Part III
Liturgy and Power in Lived Religion
The Liturgy of Life: The Eucharist, Power, and Lived Religion Ricky Manalo, CSP	145
Words Uttered by God: Reformulating "Source and Summit" Language with Karl Rahner Michael Rubbelke	165
The Power to Bless: The Negotiation of Ecclesial Authority and Christian Identity in Roman Catholic Liturgical Blessings of Parents and Children Anne McGowan	176
The Power of Virtual Space Derek C. Hatch and Katherine G. Schmidt	188
Contributors	205