

Contents

Acknowledgments	xiii
Acronyms	xv
Editor's Preface: Michael Amaladoss, Interreligious Theologian Par Excellence	xvii
Introduction: A Call to Continuing Dialogue	xxiii
A Communion of Churches	xxiii
The Church as the People of God	xxiv
A Church in Dialogue	xxv
The Mission of God	xxvi
The Church's Mission at the Service of God's Mission	xxix
Challenges	xxxiii
Conclusion	xxxv

Part I

RETHINKING RELIGIOUS PLURALISM: OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES

Chapter 1: The One and the Many	3
The Questions	4
From Creationism to Atheism	5
The One in the Many	6
The Commentators	9
Conclusion: Advaitic Unity	11
Chapter 2: The One Spirit and Many Gods	13
Speaking in Many Voices	13
Many Charisms in One Community	14
Beyond Institutional Borders	15
The Spirit of Freedom	15

The Spirit in Other Religions	16
The Other Religions and the Church	17
Religions and the Spirit of God	19
One God in Many Manifestations	20
Conclusion	21
Chapter 3: Which Is the True Religion?		23
The Dangers of Relativism	24
The Pluralism of Religions	26
Pluralism as a Problem	27
Truth as a Criterion	29
From Their Fruits (Matt 12:33)	32
Vision and Values	33
Conclusion	35
Chapter 4: Are the Scriptures of Other Religions Inspired?		37
Some Questions	37
Christians and Other Scriptures	38
A Unilinear Framework	38
A Pluralistic Framework	39
Our Response to Other Scriptures	40
Some Difficulties	42
Conclusion	43
Chapter 5: Violence or Dialogue between Religions?		45
Violence in the Name of Religion	45
Defending One's Identity	46
Religious Communalism	49
Religious Fundamentalism	49
Religious Violence	50
Sacrificial Violence	51
Religions for Peace	52
Communal Conflicts	52
A Vision of Community	55
Religions and Community	58
Conditions for Dialogue	60
Creative Praxis	62
Conclusion	67
Chapter 6: Responding to Fundamentalism		69
Christian Fundamentalism	70
The Case of the Muslims	72

The Hindu Cultural Fundamentalists	75
Buddhist Fundamentalists	77
Fundamentalism and Terrorism	79
Secular Fundamentalism	80
Promoting Justice	81
A Secular Consensual Democracy	82
The Reform of Religion	84
The Healing of Memories	85
Conclusion	86
Chapter 7: The Utopia of the Human Family	87
Harmonious Nature	88
One without a Second	89
Inter-Being	91
The Universal Community	93
Conclusion	94
Chapter 8: Ethics in a Multireligious Context	95
Error Has No Rights	96
Affirmation of Civil Liberties	97
Natural–Human–Divine Law	98
A Commentary on the Natural Law	99
The Present Situation	100
Moral and Legal	103
Ethics in a Multireligious Context	104
Conclusion	107

Part II

RESPONDING TO RELIGIOUS PLURALISM

Chapter 9: God of All Names and Interreligious Dialogue	111
Religions in Conflict	112
Search for a Method	114
Collaboration and Dialogue	116
A New Theology of Religions	118
The Church and the Reign of God	120
Jesus, the Liberator	120
A Call to Dialogue	122
Intrapersonal Dialogue	123
Dialogue as Reconciliation	124

Dialogue and Conflict	125
Prophetic Dialogue	125
Dialogue with Ideologies	126
Conclusion	126
Chapter 10: Changing Dialogue—From Religions to Ideologies	129
A Changing Context	130
Ideologies and Religions	131
Cosmic and Metacosmic Religion	132
Metacosmic Is Not Otherworldly	133
Interreligious Encounter	135
Dialogue among Ideologies	137
Religion and Ideology	138
Dialoguing with Ideologies	139
Interreligious Dialogue	140
Conclusion	141
Chapter 11: Do We Need Borders between Religions?	143
A Reflection on Identity and Difference
Religious Identities	144
Respecting Difference	144
Conflict or Communion?	145
Experiencing Identity	149
Identity in Relationship	150
Distorted Relationship	150
Group Identities	151
Religious Identities	152
The Divine Economy	153
Conclusion	155
Chapter 12: Double Religious Identity	157
A Reflection from an Indian Experience
Identity and Belonging	158
Religion and Culture	159
Cosmic and Metacosmic Religions	159
Religious Identity	160
Swami Abhishiktananda	161
A Recent Paradigm	162
A Theology of Divine-Human Encounter	163
The Human Pole	165
A Christian Perspective	167
Double Religious Identity in Practice	168

Is Double Identity Necessary?	170
Conclusion	170
Chapter 13: Hindu and Christian—Conflict or Challenge?		173
Some Examples	176
The Problem	180
Gospel and Culture	181
Cosmic and Metacosmic Religions	183
Interreligious Encounter	185
Religious Identity	186
Multireligious Families	188
A Recent Example	190
Conclusion	190
Chapter 14: From Syncretism to Harmony		193
Popular Religiosity	194
Liturgical Inculturation	195
Methods of Prayer/ Sadhana	196
Religion and Culture	197
Reinterpretation of Symbols	198
Limits to Freedom	200
Religious Symbols	201
The Ritual of Baptism	202
Being Hindu-Christian	203
Beyond Symbiosis	204
Syncretism or Harmony	206
Conclusion	209
Chapter 15: Interreligious Dialogue Fifty Years after Vatican II		211
Challenges and Opportunities
The Inspiration: The Second Vatican Council	212
The Practice and Teaching of John Paul II	213
Some Theological Tensions	214
The Church and the Kingdom	215
The Indian Tradition	217
Challenges of Interreligious Dialogue Today	219
Four Levels of Dialogue	220
Conclusion	222
Epilogue: Pope Francis and Dialogue		225
Pope Francis's Basic Attitudes	226
The Context of Evangelizing Dialogue	228

xii Contents

Social Dialogue	231
Christ and the Spirit	233
Dialogue and Truth	234
Conclusion	236

Index

237